PARKING

Parking is available at the Carnegie Science Center's paid parking lots. Please review their parking information here: <https://carnegiesciencecenter.org/visit/parking-directions/>. The directions below lead you to enter their main lot from a secondary entrance, located on an unnamed road off of Casino Drive, as this is the closest and most direct entrance to Explorer. Paystations are located in the lobby of the Carnegie Science Center and in the Science Center's North Lot. The North Lot is also accessible from Casino Drive. Guests who are visiting Explorer after the Carnegie Science Center is closed may find the North Lot more convenient because of the proximity to that paystation. Please note: you cannot pay at the secondary gate in the main lot on your way out. You may drive around the red SportsWorks building and pay at the primary exit using a credit card.
