CARRIE BLAST FURNACES NATIONAL HISTORIC LANDMARK

LEARN THE TRADITIONAL TRADES WITH RIVERS OF STEEL

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Workforce development with Rivers of Steel is designed to train and empower individuals seeking careers in the traditional trades. This paid training opportunity is set against the backdrop of the historic Carrie Blast Furnaces and hands-on projects will help directly preserve some of our nation's most precious industrial artifacts. With a robust curriculum focusing on essential skills in welding, carpentry, and masonry—framed within the tenets of historic restoration and preservation—participants will attain industry-recognized certifications that uniquely position them for entry into the workforce, trade union membership, or continued education in the trades.

WE PROVIDE THE TOOLS FOR SUCCESS!

Participants are provided with the necessary personal protective equipment (uniforms, safety glasses, hard hats and boots), access to continuing education resources and job placement services at the end of the program.
